

Sunday Morning Classes

June ~ August 2010

CLASS	TEACHER	ROOM	DESCRIPTION
Adult Class "Christianity and Literature II"	Matthew Bardowell	Room 301	Throughout history, Christianity has influenced literature in profound and fundamental ways. In this class, we will read various short-stories, poems, and portions of longer works and discuss them in conjunction with Biblical themes as well as issues facing modern Christians.
Adult Class "Heaven"	Mike Allen	Room 302	Some people look at the Bible's statements about heaven as an attempt to describe the indescribable, and so they do not seriously study what the Bible says about heaven. This summer quarter's study of heaven might surprise you.
Adult Prayer Class	Wole Okunade	Room 304	We will be discussing God's promises for His children and for His Church at large. We will spend time in prayer for the church, our various ministries and our members' needs.
Adult Class "Make Christ the Center of Your Personality . . . ."	Butch Smith	Room 400	This interactive discussion will focus on several scriptures that give us principles by which we should live, especially the scripture, John 15:11 that says, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.'" We will look at our personalities to determine our behavior at home, at work, at play, or wherever we are. Do others see Christ at the center of our personality? We will also take the Myers-Briggs Personality Inventory to see how we see ourselves. We will look at how we can go from griping to being grateful; from worrying to being at peace; from being bitter to forgiving; from being depressed to being joyful.
